THE CLEVELAND BROWNS
GIVE BACK
TO NORTHEAST OHIO
WITH A COMMITMENT TO
EDUCATION AND YOUTH FOOTBALL
WHILE ENGAGING THE
SIGNATURE FIRST AND TEN
VOLUNTEER MOVEMENT.

THE BROWNS HAVE UNIFIED AND STREAMLINED THEIR MANY PHILANTHROPIC EFFORTS THROUGHOUT NORTHEAST OHIO THROUGH “BROWNS GIVE BACK”

Giving back to Northeast Ohio is a core value of the Cleveland Browns organization, and Browns Give Back creates a measurable, thoughtful and impactful approach to enrich the communities in which we live, work and play through financial contributions and service projects.

The Browns' philanthropic efforts through the Cleveland Browns Foundation, Community Relations and personal giving from Dee and Jimmy Haslam, coaches, players and the rest of the Browns organization are unified together under the Browns Give Back platform. The target of these endeavors is devoted to three focus areas: EDUCATION, YOUTH FOOTBALL and the team's signature FIRST AND TEN volunteer initiative. The Browns also remain committed to social justice efforts throughout the region and state through INSPIRE CHANGE.

“As stewards of this franchise we recognize the platform our organization has to unify Northeast Ohio in so many ways,” said Dee and Jimmy Haslam. “We take great pride in the responsibility of every member of our organization to positively impact this community which has provided an incredible amount of support during our time in Cleveland. Our Browns Give Back initiative is keenly focused through a streamlined approach on areas that we feel can improve the lives of children while engaging our community and inspiring others to get out and make an impact by volunteering their time to a cause.”

The Browns focus on education and youth football is a direct reflection on supporting children first, who represent the future of our city. When the children of Northeast Ohio succeed and accomplish their goals on their way to becoming adults, everyone in the area, including the Browns, benefits and wins. The same goes for volunteerism, which is encouraged and amplified through First and Ten, not only locally but in the cities in which fans and teammates live.

Stay Focused, Keep Learning and Achieve your Dreams!

Inspired by exciting progress made locally, the Cleveland Browns Foundation, in collaboration with the Ohio Department of Education and Proving Ground at Harvard University, launched the "Stay In The Game! Keep Learning, Every Day" Network in 2019. This unique, statewide public-private partnership aims to help Ohio families, schools and community partners raise awareness about the importance of school attendance and student engagement. The "Stay In The Game!" Network is an adaptation of "Get 2 School, Stay In The Game" Network! The name change reflects the current environment where schools may not necessarily be able to host in-school learning due to the COVID-19 pandemic. No matter the circumstances, the Network will continue to encourage students to maintain a strong educational-going mindset to keep learning, every day, aligned with its overall goal to help end chronic absenteeism and provide all students equal opportunities to be successful.

Stay in the Game Ohio Network at a Glance:

- The network is designed to connect its users to each other, state and national experts and high-quality attendance-focused campaign materials, strategies and evaluation tools.
- The network's core is its website, Get2School.org, which is available to all Ohio schools and districts who can download campaign materials and resources at no cost.
- During the 2019-20 school year, the network intensely partnered with 14 school districts, benefitting nearly 85,000 students across Ohio.

Partner districts receive additional supports and resources to build a local campaign and create programs that help students remain present and engaged, using a data-informed, continuous improvement approach. All learnings gleaned from these improvement efforts will be shared broadly across the network, benefitting all schools and districts that are members of the network. (See map)

Did You Know?

- More than 16 percent (266,763) of Ohio's K-12 students are chronically absent
- Chronically absent students in Ohio are 89% less likely to graduate on time from high school
- Children living in poverty are two to three times more likely to experience chronic absence and face the most barriers getting to school due to lack of basic resources
- High school students who attend regularly are more likely to persist in college and graduate or earn a post-secondary credential

LANDRY DONATES HYGIENE PRODUCTS TO EAST CLEVELAND CITY SCHOOL DISTRICT FAMILIES

To assist during the COVID-19 pandemic, WR Jarvis Landry personally donated $15,000 to provide hygiene products to East Cleveland City School District students and families. Landry partnered with Meijer to secure the supply for East Cleveland Schools, which was selected as the recipient through the Cleveland Browns Foundation's "Get 2 School, Stay in the Game!" Network. The items - including soap, shampoo, deodorant, toothpaste and other personal care products - benefitted 1,300 families.

CLEVELAND BROWNS FIELD PROJECTS

SINCE MAKING CLEVELAND OUR HOME, WE HAVE FOCUSED ON IMPROVING YOUTH FOOTBALL AND EDUCATION FOR THE ENTIRE REGION. BY INSTALLING THESE SYNTHETIC TURF FIELDS, WE ARE ABLE TO COMBINE THOSE TWO PASSIONS TO GIVE OUR YOUTH, SCHOOLS AND COMMUNITIES YEAR-ROUND ACCESS TO THE RESOURCES THEY DESERVE.

- DEE & JIMMY HASLAM

As part of the Browns' dedication to education, youth and high school football and Northeast Ohio, Dee and Jimmy Haslam and the Browns organization have helped install nine high-quality synthetic turf fields in the past five years at schools and community organizations throughout the region. While each field is lined to allow frequent use by various sports groups, including football, soccer and more, one primary focus is to offer youth educational tools through these "outdoor classrooms," which allow opportunities to participate in extracurricular activities that support attendance, school engagement and overall personal growth. The site selection process prioritizes underserved communities in the inner city and other areas of need, helping promote equal access to beneficial educational resources to everyone throughout the community, no matter their race, gender or economic status.

The project launched in May 2016, when the Haslams and Browns committed to new surfaces at five Cleveland Metropolitan School District (CMSD) schools over a two-year span. During the community impact project's planning stages, CMSD identified five locations that would create the most significant results throughout the city. Three fields - Royce Kidd Field, James F. Rhodes Field and Bump Taylor Field - were completed for the start of the 2016 high school football season, while John Adams Field and John Marshall Field finished construction in fall 2017.

Since the Senate League field installment, the Cleveland Muny League, CMSD physical education classes and local community members have also received additional access to the spaces, given many time limitations related to grass field maintenance have been eliminated with the implementation of synthetic turf.

In 2018, the Browns provided two new high school fields - one at Toledo's Roy C. Start High School and one at Lorain High School's George Daniel Field. In 2019, the Browns extended their commitment at two sites - one at Boys Hope Girls Hope of Northeast Ohio and one at Akron's Ellet High School - and plan to expand the project to additional venues in the years to come.

LEGENDS CLINIC

With the new high-quality synthetic turf fields throughout Greater Cleveland, Lorain and Toledo, the Browns have helped create new opportunities to play football in the region. To further their support, the Browns in the summer of 2018 introduced the Cleveland Browns Legends Clinic. Through the event, nearly 1,000 kids have already had the opportunity to attend a free clinic where Browns alumni serve as Play Football Ambassadors and high school coaches offer up tips and hands-on instruction. The sessions include lectures, fundamental football skills stations, contests and non-contact games in a high-energy, fun and positive environment to promote a love of the game for youth participants.

JR. BROWNS NFL FLAG

Jr. Browns NFL FLAG is the Cleveland Browns official youth flag football program for children 5-14 years old. It provides boys and girls the opportunity to play in one of the NFL's largest organized non-contact football leagues. Started in 2018 with eight community programs throughout Northeast Ohio, it now extends to more than 70 programs throughout the region. Additionally, the Browns launched the new Jr. Browns NFL FLAG In-School program for local elementary and middle schools.

ROOKIE TACKLE

Launched in 2017, the Browns and local youth football organizations across the country are hosting USA Football Rookie Tackle programs to further introduce and evaluate the new education and skills-progression focused version of the sport.

USA Football's Rookie Tackle was created to provide a playing structure and format to serve as a youth football development bridge between flag football and 11-player tackle. In line with other sports' models, Rookie Tackle offers young participants an opportunity to be introduced to or progressively learn more about football fundamentals, strategy and the game itself prior to advancing to full 11-on-11, 100-yard competition that is equivalent to the high school, collegiate and professional ranks.

The Cleveland Browns were the first NFL team to help coordinate USA Football's "modified tackle" football scrimmages and a Rookie Tackle pilot league within their home market as the two organizations continue their partnership and dedication to advance youth players' enjoyment of playing the country's most popular sport.

HS GAME OF THE WEEK

The Cleveland Browns High School Game of the Week (HSGOTW) returns this fall for the 11th consecutive year, presented by Ohio CAT and in association with Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine (LECOM). Since the program began, more than eight million votes have been submitted for weekly matchups posted on ClevelandBrowns.com, making the Game of the Week page one of the most visited pages on ClevelandBrowns.com. Last season, 10 programs won $2,500, while Mentor High School's Steve Trivisonno received an additional $5,000 for the Cardinals football program after being named the Cleveland Browns High School Coach of the Year.

HELMETS PROGRAM

HELMETS, presented by Meijer and in association with University Hospitals and Xenith, aims to advance player safety by awarding an eligible Ohio area high school football program with $25,000 in new Xenith football helmets. As a prerequisite, programs must commit to enhancing player health and safety by enrolling in USA Football's medically endorsed Youth Football Certification course, which offers certification clinics to educate coaches about concussion recognition and response protocols, proper equipment fitting, shoulder tackling, heads up blocking, heat emergency preparedness and hydration and sudden cardiac arrest.

Cleveland Browns Youth Football - VIRTUAL

To ensure the Browns, coaches, players and parents could continue to share important tools, information and dialogue related to youth and high school football during the 2020 offseason, the team transitioned its annual summer programming to a virtual format.

NORTHEAST OHIO YOUTH FOOTBALL SUMMIT

In 2020, the Cleveland Browns hosted the 3rd Annual Northeast Ohio Youth Football Summit. The youth football coaches' event featured sessions led by local high school coaches, Browns assistant offensive line Coach Scott Peters, rookies S Grant Delpit and T Jedrick Willis and alumnus LB Jason Trusnik and other football experts, as well as medical professionals from University Hospitals. Throughout the summit, coaches learned proper tackling techniques, coaching fundamentals, key communication skills, practice preparation tips and other essential skills for youth football player, coach and program development.

PARENTS CLINIC

The Cleveland Browns Parents Clinic is an interactive and educational forum designed to educate parents about football fundamentals and offer a player safety clinic. Participants learned about CDC-approved concussion recognition and response protocols, proper equipment fitting, blocking and defeating blocks, shoulder tackling and heat emergency preparedness, hydration and sudden cardiac arrest, in addition to hearing directly from University Hospitals medical experts on important health and safety elements. The program also creates communication opportunities between parents so they can collectively discuss various topics of note. The event is one of a series of football safety clinics for parents around the NFL, encompassing the Cleveland Browns, Ohio High School Athletic Association (OHSAA) and University Hospitals to help improve the game of football at all levels.

This year's special panelists included Nicole Ward, the Executive Director of "Make Them Know Your Name" Foundation and the mother of Pro Bowl CB Denzel Ward, and Browns alumnus and current NFL Vice President of Football Operations Roman Oben.

YOUTH FOOTBALL CLINIC

The Cleveland Browns Youth Football Clinic, in association with University Hospitals, helped kids stay active and sharpen their skills as they work on all the football basics, from passing and kicking to blocking and defense. Participants had the opportunity to watch local high school coaches host drills and sessions that could be conducted at home to promote development in a fun way and also received a special message from members of the 2020 Browns Rookie Class!

IMPACTING THE LAND - BROWNS SOCIAL JUSTICE INITIATIVES

Through the league's Inspire Change initiative, Dee and Jimmy Haslam, and the Browns organization have worked towards education and economic advancement, police/community relations and criminal justice reform in the Cleveland community. Now more than ever, the Browns remain committed to the goal of Impacting the Land and inspiring positive change to help create social equality in our communities.

The Browns continue to strive for equality in education, equality in the work place and equality in the justice system. The Browns have particularly advocated for all children no matter where they live, to have access to a good education through the Browns Foundation's statewide Get 2 School initiative.

Through discussions with the Browns social justice leadership team, Browns players identified wanting to support police-community relations, hosting local Neighborhood Equality & Unity Summits for dialogue with students and first responders; making collaborative visits to Cleveland Recreation Centers; addressing recidivism and creating job opportunities; and providing educational resources to students in need.

Partnering with the City of Cleveland Recreation Centers has provided opportunities for Browns players to help facilitate dialogue between Cleveland safety forces and CMSD students. As a part of Browns UNITY efforts, the entire 2019 rookie class visited Lonnie Burten recreation center to engage with over 70 youth and local safety forces. Lonnie Burten was the site of one of the Browns refurbishment projects as well as Dwayne Browder Field, renovated in 2015 as part of the Browns commitment to youth football.

Browns players, staff and members of the Stripes United women's organization also made additional contributions to City of Cleveland Recreation Centers in 2019 to help renovate spaces at four locations and create more opportunities for youth to learn and play in their own community.

The Browns have supported efforts in the areas of criminal justice reform as well as re-entry programs. Last offseason, Browns players traveled to the City of Cleveland Courthouse downtown and witnessed bail hearings to better understand the process and its challenges, followed by a trip to interact with individuals incarcerated at Bedford Heights City Jail. In partnership with the Players Coalition, Browns players have used their platform to help lobby for reform in the justice system.

"We will continue to focus on justice reform in Ohio, through political advocacy and working with community agencies that provide services in this area. We will work with and challenge the police department for better education, reform, training, and empathy." - Dee Haslam

Led by players, the Browns donated $75,000 to Towards Employment, which supplies training and resources and assists in securing jobs for individuals who have been incarcerated. Multiple Browns players had previously visited Towards Employment's headquarters to learn about how those groups are impacted when seeking employment, as well as speak with multiple members enrolled in Towards Employment programs.

Last year, the Browns dined at EDWINS restaurant following a tour of the organization's main campus, where the team provided a $75,000 grant towards its mission. Founded in 2007, EDWINS Leadership & Restaurant Institute gives formerly incarcerated adults a foundation in the culinary and hospitality industry while providing a support network necessary to their long-term success.

The Browns also contributed $100,000 to Lutheran Metropolitan Ministry, towards the rehabilitated property which will support a family leaving the criminal justice system. Additionally, the Browns contribute to NAACP's Freedom Fund in support of its mission to ensure the political, educational, social, economic equality of rights of all persons and to eliminate race-based discrimination.

Dee Haslam is also a member of the NFL's player-owner social justice committee, which was established in December 2017, with the focus of supporting programs and initiatives that reduce barriers to opportunity with a priority on supporting improvements in education and economic development, community and police relations and the criminal justice system.

The Browns social justice leadership team will continue to expand its efforts in 2020 and beyond with the goal of Impacting the Land and to Inspire Change by helping create social equality in local communities.

INSPIRE CHANGE

Following the tragic death of George Floyd, and as protests spread from coast to coast and across the globe, Browns Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Andrew Berry on June 5 sent a passionate email to all Browns employees. Ultimately, it served as the inspiration for a call to action that now includes all Browns fans through the team's #BeTheSolution campaign.

Berry's email started with a message of empathy and sympathy to those who have struggled to focus on the day-to-day not only because of what was transpiring in the wake of Floyd's death, but also the tragedies involving Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery and others victims representing the African-American community.

"On a personal level, I've cycled through feelings of frustration, anger, despondency and – yes – even hope throughout the week," Berry wrote. "I'm the father of two black boys, and I'm most thankful that they are young enough to maintain their innocence. Whether you are empathetic or sympathetic, let's take some time to not ignore the obvious... This is not 'business as usual.'"

In his email, Berry encouraged staff to take one of three significant steps to educate themselves and/or make a donation to an organization committed to social equality initiatives. Within 24 hours, more than 50 employees participated. Including Berry's $8,460 commitment and matching contributions from the Haslam family, the organization's staff raised more than $180,000 for 14 different charities in just a few weeks.

#BETHESOLUTION CALL TO ACTION:

- 1) Spend at least 8 minutes and 46 seconds (in honor of Floyd) on one of a number of educational or dialogue items available and submit a short written or video reflection about what they learned or will do moving forward
- 2) Sign up for any social activism initiative
- 3) Donate anything to a social activism cause

Those resources were then made available outside of the Browns' organization to anyone that would like to do their part to #BeTheSolution.

Visit the Browns' #BeTheSolution campaign website for more information and resources:
WWW.CLEVELANDBROWNS.COM/BETHESOLUTION

During a virtual team meeting, Head Coach Kevin Stefanski also urged his players to "get in the arena" and use their unique platform to help bring real change to the fight against racial injustice. When Floyd was memorialized at a funeral in his native Houston, Stefanski gave the team the day off so they could pay their respects. Stefanski and a number of coaches and executives used that time to visit the memorial of Tamir Rice, a 12-year-old, African-American boy who was shot and killed by two Cleveland police officers in Nov. 2014.

From Bill Wills and Marion Motley – who helped break football's color barrier in 1946 – to Hall of Famer Jim Brown – who has devoted his post-playing years to fighting racial injustice – to Andrew Hawkins – who wore a shirt that sought justice for Rice and John Crawford III over top of his jersey before a 2014 game – the Browns have entered "the arena" on multiple occasions throughout their storied history. The team will continue to identify ways to support this important cause, and urges its fans to do their part to make a difference in our community.

"We are a family. We're in this for one reason. We realize what's right, and there are some things that are more important than football. I think too many times organizations can be tone deaf to those dynamics. This is one of those moments where our focus can't be only or solely what goes on between those white lines. There are just bigger societal issues at play. NFL teams, in general, have such an influence on their communities that if we can't be at the front of the pack on some of these issues that impact all of us, then shame on us."
- ANDREW BERRY

DEE &amp; JIMMY HASLAM

SCHOOL UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE
HOMETOWN KNOXVILLE, TENN.
YEAR IN THE NFL 13TH
YEAR WITH THE BROWNS NINTH

MANAGING AND PRINCIPAL PARTNERS

Dee and Jimmy Haslam are committed to restoring championship football in Cleveland. To best position the team for success, the Haslams have consistently invested in the organization and its facilities to provide the best resources available, while working diligently and responsibly in partnership with the City of Cleveland and the City of Berea.

The Haslams have created three primary areas of focus to set the team's culture in Cleveland and help direct all important processes and decisions for the organization. The club's standard is centered on providing a consistently winning team on the football field; taking exceptional care of the team's fans by providing a premier experience throughout the year; and striving to make a positive impact in the Northeast Ohio community with an emphasis on education, youth football and community engagement through volunteerism.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Dee and Jimmy are immersed in numerous philanthropic and community endeavors to impact Northeast Ohio and have always taken a proactive approach to help address the needs of their communities. Upon becoming owners of the Browns, they quickly engaged themselves in the Northeast Ohio community.

This past March, Dee and Jimmy on behalf of the Haslam family pledged $1.5 million to COVID-19 relief funds throughout the state of Ohio. Through their Haslam 3 Foundation, the Haslams earmarked $1 million to the Greater Cleveland COVID-19 Rapid Response Fund and $500,000 to the Columbus Foundation's Emergency Response Fund.

"We are humbled by the tremendous work of people around the world in their efforts to help those impacted by COVID-19 and we wanted to try to positively impact those affected in our own communities of Cleveland and Columbus," Dee and Jimmy Haslam said. "We are grateful for the individuals who are putting others before themselves and for the sacrifices they are making."

In August of 2019, the Haslam 3 Foundation donated $4.5 million to education-based programs that give school-aged children more access to three arts organizations in Cleveland: Playhouse Square, the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and the Cleveland Orchestra.

"Education is one of our priorities," Dee Haslam told Cleveland.com after the donation. "We know that engaged students are more likely to go to school. We're able to help in a way that may make a difference and excite these children to be engaged in something that touches their hearts."

In 2017, the Browns' philanthropic efforts through the Cleveland Browns Foundation, Community Relations and personal giving from the Haslams, coaches, players and the rest of the Browns organization were unified with the creation of "Browns Give Back."

The Haslams established a focus and direction for the Browns Give Back initiative, with a commitment to make a continuing impact in education, youth football and community engagement through volunteerism. The foundation of the Haslam's philanthropy strategy is based on the belief that every child deserves a quality education. They have made improving education in underserved and disadvantaged communities a priority for their philanthropic efforts.

They have invested $11 million in Breakthrough Charter Schools, which helps provide equal educational opportunities for local youths throughout greater Cleveland. In 2019, the Cleveland

Browns also launched the “Get 2 School, Stay in the Game” Network, in partnership with the Ohio Department of Education and Harvard University’s Proving Ground, to promote the importance of school attendance and put an end to chronic absenteeism.

The couple also made a substantial gift to Cleveland’s public schools, helping to refurbish many of the city’s athletic fields. By the start of the 2019 high school football season, the Browns will have installed nine turf fields as part of the program over a four-year period. In 2016 as part of the their dedication to education, youth and high school football and Cleveland, Dee and Jimmy announced a commitment to provide five Cleveland Metropolitan School District (CMSD) fields with high-quality synthetic turf during the next two years. Three fields – Royce Kidd Field, James F. Rhodes Field and Bump Taylor Field – were renovated before the start of the 2016 high school football season. In 2017, renovations were completed on John Adams Field and John Marshall Field. The fields are available to all CMSD schools and are lined to accommodate multiple sports to offer more students opportunities to benefit from the upgraded playing surfaces. In 2018, the field project expanded beyond Cleveland with the refurbishments of a field at Roy C. Start High School in Toledo and George Daniels Field at Lorain High School. In 2019, the field project continued by breaking ground for fields at Ellet High School in Akron and Boys Hope Girls Hope in Garfield Heights, and the efforts are expected to continue in the coming years. The Haslams and Pilot Flying J have also initiated the turf field project in Knoxville, providing funding to transform 13 fields at area high schools.

This past December the Haslams helped open the doors to the Haslam-Sansom Ministry Complex in the Lonsdale community of Knoxville, Tenn. The $8 million privately funded project by the Haslam and Sansom families consists of 30,000 square feet and includes two fields, which can be used for soccer or football, a gymnasium with two full-sized basketball courts, a chapel, a community room and a medical clinic. It was built for the Emerald Youth Foundation and the complex will serve the more than 1,400 young people within Emerald as well as help hundreds of families in the underserved Lonsdale neighborhood.

In 2017, the Haslams announced that all net proceeds from items purchased in the Browns Pro Shop at FirstEnergy Stadium and during training camp in Berea will go towards supporting the Browns Give Back commitment to education and youth football.

The Haslams worked strategically and passionately to bring the NFL Draft to Cleveland, knowing the impact it could have on the community to host such a signature event. On May 22, 2019, Commissioner Roger Goodell announced that Cleveland would host the 2021 NFL Draft in partnership with the City of Cleveland, Greater Cleveland Sports Commission and Destination Cleveland.

Dee is also committed to the betterment of the Northeast Ohio community through her active involvement as a member of the board of directors for the Greater Cleveland Partnership; the United Way of Greater Cleveland (Executive Council); University Hospitals Systems; the Cleveland Orchestra; and the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame. She also serves on the boards of the University of Tennessee Haslam College of Business; the Emerald Youth Foundation; State Collaborative on Reforming Education (SCORE) in Tennessee; and is the acting chair of Lakeshore Park. Dee also serves on the board of the Greater Columbus Partnership.

In May of 2017, Dee was appointed by Governor Jeb Bush to ExcelinEd’s Board of Directors, which is a foundation that has become a national leader in the education reform movement. She was also awarded an honorary doctorate after delivering the commencement speech at Baldwin Wallace University.

Dee and Jimmy helped co-found the Haslam Scholars Program in 2008. The program offers unique in-depth academic enrichment for top students at the University of Tennessee.

Jimmy also serves on the boards of the American Federation for Children, the National Association of Truckstop Operators and Anderson Media Corporation. In 2006, he served as Tennessee statewide campaign chair for Bob Corker, now a United States Senator. Jimmy was also the 2010

Tennessee statewide finance chair for Governor Bill Haslam. In October 2011, Jimmy was recognized as a "Significant Sig" by the Sigma Chi Foundation. Jimmy's additional civic involvement includes service on the boards of directors of Lakeshore Park in Knoxville, Tenn. He formerly served as campaign chair for both Knox Area Rescue Ministries and United Way of Greater Knoxville.

In June of 2017, Jimmy was honored by the Cleveland branch of the NAACP at its 105th Anniversary Celebration Freedom Fund Dinner.

Dee and Jimmy have led the Browns efforts and impact in the social justice space. They have met with Browns players to support their ideas and efforts in determining the best ways to make an impact. The Browns have hosted three social justice summits; two that brought together the Cleveland Police Department with Cleveland Metropolitan School District high school students to create a forum for open and honest dialogue about social injustice and another that brought community and civic leaders to the Browns facility to engage players and the entire organization. Players have also participated in ride-a-longs with local police departments and the Haslams have provided written testimony in support of state criminal justice reform bills. Dee sits on the NFL's social justice committee that works directly with players to advise league on social justice initiatives and funding of programs.

In January of 2019, Dee participated in a panel discussion as part of the R.I.S.E. Super Bowl Champions of Change Town Hall at the King Center in Atlanta, Georgia to discuss team ownerships' role in the league's social justice initiative.

To help further advance the NFL, Jimmy is a member of the league's business ventures, media, and Hall of Fame committees and chairs the investment committee. Dee serves on the social justice, legislative and conduct committees.

The Haslams received their first award as members of the NFL in 2014 when they were recognized by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award for promoting diversity within NFL front offices.

During their tenure, the Haslams have also directed major renovation projects that resulted in a $125 million of upgrades to FirstEnergy Stadium and $15 million to the team's training facility, in partnership with the City of Cleveland and City of Berea.

BEYOND THE NFL

In January of 2019, the Haslams expanded their sports interests and investments when they reached an agreement with Major League Soccer to operate the Columbus Crew. Dee has led the efforts to create a new Columbus Crew SC downtown stadium, officially opening in 2021. The dynamic, modern and inspiring stadium will be an accessible and inclusive community asset for the city of Columbus. Additionally, the Crew will open a new dynamic 42,000 square feet, first-in-class MLS training facility for all soccer operations, including First Team and Academy next summer. Dee was also named to MLS's Board of Governors. After the family acquired the Crew, they formed the Haslam Sport Group (HSG). In addition to owning and operating the Crew and the Brown, HSG also explores various investment opportunities within the sports and entertainment industries. HSG recently became an investor in Misfits Gaming Group, a global esports and entertainment company.

A native of Knoxville, Tenn., Jimmy Haslam began his career at Pilot Corporation in 1976, a company his family founded in 1958. In 1980, Haslam was named vice president of sales, development and operations. At that time, Pilot operated 100 convenience stores with annual fuel sales of about 125 million gallons. Today, Jimmy serves as CEO of the Pilot Company, a position he has held since 1996 and the company has exponentially grown its network and supplies more than 11 billion gallons of fuel per year. Pilot has an industry-leading network of more than 950 retail and fueling locations that offer a variety of products, amenities and innovative solutions to make road travel easier. The Pilot Flying J travel center network includes locations in 44 states and six Canadian provinces with more than 680 restaurants. Pilot Company's energy division supplies fuel, DEF, bio and renewables and provides hauling and disposal services as the third largest tanker fleet in North America. In October of 2017, Warren Buffet's Berkshire Hathaway acquired an investment-stake in Pilot Flying J. Jimmy was thrilled to collaborate with Berkshire Hathaway and expressed those feelings in a recent interview, "Obviously to have a partner like Warren and Berkshire Hathaway, I think, is a tremendous honor for our team members. Pilot Flying J has always been a growth company, and obviously partnering with Warren is an opportunity to grow even more." On January 1, 2021, Jimmy will become chairman of the board and Shameek Konar, will replace Jimmy as CEO at Pilot.

Dee, an Emmy-nominated TV producer, was the executive producer and CEO of RIVR Media Companies. Since launching RIVR Media in 1999, Dee has been the executive producer for ground breaking series such as "Trading Spaces," "Whale Wars," "World Series of Poker," "Renovation Realities," "Fat Guys in the Woods," and "Escaping Polygamy." Recently, RIVR was named a Realscreen's Global 100 TV production company. In June of 2012, Dee started Nest Features, an independent film company that produces films in and about the American South. Prior to RIVR's launch, she worked in various production roles with Bagwell Communications and Cinetel Productions. Dee transitioned from her role as CEO at RIVR Media in early 2018 to devote more of her time to Cleveland but remains a partner and executive producer.

Dee's professional association memberships include: Academy of Television Arts and Sciences; In Counsel with Women; Women in Cable Telecommunications; International Women's Forum; C200; and the Society of International Business Fellows.

In July of 2018, Cleveland Crain's honored Dee as a Women of Note for her efforts and commitment towards the betterment of Cleveland.

The Haslams first became involved in the NFL by acquiring minority ownership of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2008, marking the first time ownership of the franchise expanded beyond the Rooney and McGinley families. The Haslams kept that stake until taking control of the Browns.

On Aug. 2, 2012, Dee, Jimmy and the Haslam family agreed to purchase the Cleveland Browns. The sale was unanimously approved by NFL owners on Oct. 16, 2012, and the closing took place on Oct. 25.

The Haslams have three adult children and six grandchildren.

B R E A K I N G   N E W   G R O U N D S

During 2019, the Browns hosted official groundbreakings for new fields around Northeastern Ohio. The team began installation and funding of high-quality synthetic turf multi-sport playing fields to be funded dating back to summer 2016 through the Browns' and Dee and Jimmy Haslams' commitment to youth football as part of Browns Give Back and have provided nine new fields in that span.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL OPERATIONS &amp; GENERAL MANAGER

Andrew Berry was named the Browns Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager on Jan. 28, 2020. Berry re-joined the Browns staff after serving as Vice President of Player Personnel from 2016-18.

Using an aggressive approach, Berry added talent to address roster needs during his first offseason at the helm. He signed two-time Pro Bowl TE Austin Hooper and All-Pro RT Jack Conklin as unrestricted free agents. The team also used the 10th overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft to add LT Jedrick Wills Jr. In total, the Browns added nine unrestricted free agents and seven draft picks.

In his first stint with the Browns, Berry first worked under Executive Vice President of Football Operations Sashi Brown followed by General Manager John Dorsey. He helped lead all talent evaluation efforts for the club, including college prospects and NFL free agents. He also helped in overseeing the club's scouting department and worked closely with other high-ranking members of the front office.

During Berry's first three drafts with the Browns, the team selected at least one future Pro Bowler every year: LB Joe Schobert (fourth round, 2016), DE Myles Garrett (first round, 2017), CB Denzel Ward (first round, 2018) and RB Nick Chubb (second round, 2018).

In between his stints with the Browns, Berry served as the Vice President of Football Operations with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2019. In his one draft with the Eagles, Philadelphia used a second-round pick on RB Miles Sanders, who went on to lead all NFL rookies in scrimmage yards with 1,327 and set an Eagles rookie rushing record with 818 yards.

Berry also spent seven seasons (2009-15) in the Indianapolis Colts front office, including his final four as pro scouting coordinator. He started with the Colts in 2009 as a scouting assistant and was promoted to pro scout in 2011 before being elevated to pro scouting coordinator in 2012. During his time in Indianapolis, the Colts won four AFC South titles, made five postseason appearances and advanced to Super Bowl XLIV. From 2009-15, Indianapolis won 67 games, the sixth-most in the NFL during that span.

In the Colts' front office, Berry managed the free agency process, scouted upcoming opponents and evaluated NFL players and players from other professional leagues. He also assisted with college scouting, preparation for the NFL draft and participated in contract negotiations during free agency.

Berry graduated cum laude from Harvard University with a bachelor's degree in economics and a master's degree in computer science in four years. While at Harvard, he was a four-year starter as a cornerback and was a three-time All-Ivy League team selection and an All-America honoree. He totaled 125 career tackles and five interceptions playing for the Crimson.

Berry was one of five finalists for the John Wooden Citizenship Cup, which is awarded to the nation's highest-achieving student-athlete who best displays character, teamwork and citizenship. He was a finalist for the Draddy Trophy as the national scholar-athlete of the year and was named the 2009 Football Championship Subdivision Athletic Director Association Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

In June 2020, Berry sparked the #BeTheSolution campaign to emphasize education and encourage others to implement action for ending social and racial injustice practices. Berry created the challenge internally with an email to the Browns organization and donated $8,460 to the NAACP Legal Defense Fund for efforts after at least 50 employees completed one of the following in honor of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery and many more who tragically lost their lives: 1. Spend at least 8 minutes and 46 seconds (in honor of Floyd) on one of a number of educational or dialogue items provided in the email and submit a short written or video reflection on what they learned or will do moving forward. 2. Sign up for any social activism initiative. 3. Donate anything to a social activism cause. The Haslam family pledged to match every dollar raised and contributed to the organizations of employees' choice to a social justice nonprofit. The Browns staff raised more than $185,000 in a two-week span for 14 different charities. Berry later invited fans, players and members of the media to join in the fight to #BeTheSolution.

Berry and his wife Brittan have two boys, Zion and Kairo.

CHIEF STRATEGY OFFICER

Paul DePodesta was named the Browns' Chief Strategy Officer on January 5, 2016. DePodesta came to Cleveland after spending 20 seasons in Major League Baseball. During his time in MLB, DePodesta was the only executive in the league to win divisional titles with five different organizations.

This past offseason, DePodesta led the processes for the Browns' search of head coach and general manager candidates. Through a thorough and strategic information gathering process that was inclusive of many members at various levels of the organization, DePodesta helped the Browns land Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Andrew Berry and Head Coach Kevin Stefanski.

DePodesta is tasked with implementing systems and processes to strengthen the Browns organization. In this role, he works closely with Berry, Stefanski and members of the player development and research departments to optimize all organizational decision-making efforts.

DePodesta joined the Browns from the New York Mets, where he served as the vice president of player development and amateur scouting for five seasons (2011-15). In his time in New York, DePodesta was part of a front office that took the Mets from a 79-83 record and fourth-place divisional finish in 2010 to a Divisional title, National League Championship and World Series appearance in 2015.

Prior to the Mets, DePodesta spent five seasons (2006-10) with the San Diego Padres, first as a special assistant for baseball operations and then executive vice president. Before San Diego, he served as the General Manager for the Los Angeles Dodgers from 2004-05. In his first season with the Dodgers, the team had its first playoff victory in 15 years.

David Jenkins is in his 17th season with the Browns and was named the team's Chief Operating Officer on May 8, 2018. As COO, Jenkins leads the team's daily business operations and its long-term vision, directing all organizational goals related to financial management, revenue generation, stadium operations, legal, information technology, business analytics and administration. He also serves as one of the Browns' key government relations contacts, working closely with the City of Cleveland and City of Berea on club related matters.

During the past few years, Jenkins has acted as one of the Browns' primary advocates, along with ownership and team executives, to bring the NFL Draft to Northeast Ohio. That acquisition led to the formation of HSG, which owns and operates the Crew and the Browns, while also exploring various opportunities within the sports and entertainment industries. HSG recently became an investor in Misfits Gaming Group, a global Esports and entertainment company.

Prior to being elevated to COO, Jenkins spent three seasons as the team's executive vice president and five as chief financial officer. He oversaw all finance-related departments of the organization - budgeting and strategic planning, financial reporting, audit and risk management, and in 2016, added stadium operations, legal, information technology and administration to his assignments.

After joining the Browns in October 2004 as a financial and business analyst, Jenkins held positions as the club's director of finance (2006), vice president of finance (2007-10) and senior vice president of finance & administration (2010-12). VICE PRESIDENT, CLEVELAND BROWNS FOUNDATION

Renee Harvey is in her 19th year with the Browns and currently serves as vice president and executive director of the Cleveland Browns Foundation. Named to the position in 2013, Harvey manages all long-term strategies and day-to-day operations for the Foundation and its commitment to education in Ohio through Browns Give Back and the "Get 2 School, Stay in the Game!" Network.

Harvey is a core member of the team's leadership group as the Browns have established a culture where supporting the community is prioritized as a main measurement of success, along with winning consistently and creating an exceptional fan experience. In 2017, Harvey helped develop and launch the team's philanthropic mission of Browns Give Back, the team's community platform that is dedicated to education, youth football and volunteerism, with a focus of sparking meaningful, long-term impact in those three key areas.

Last year, the Foundation partnered with the Ohio Department of Education and Proving Ground at Harvard University to create the "Get 2 School, Stay in the Game!" Network, a statewide initiative designed to promote the importance of school attendance and put an end to chronic absenteeism. The primary goal of the "Get 2 School" Network is to raise awareness and provide school districts with tools to support strong student attendance and combat chronic absenteeism.

Harvey also played a pivotal role in 2013 during the execution of an eight-month evaluation and transformation of the Cleveland Browns Foundation, established in 1999, that resulted strategic plans committed to education. Emphasizing attendance, the Foundation's mission is to improve the quality of education for students in Ohio by making investments that keep kids in school every day so they can succeed. The team engages school districts and promotes quality education by using attendance data and feedback from families to build a school-going culture, uncover and reduce common barriers to attendance and support engagement opportunities for students to thrive.

In 2017, Harvey helped foster a new collaboration between the Cleveland Metropolitan School District, Shoes and Clothes for Kids and the Cleveland Browns Foundation to create the "Special Teams Package" program, which provides uniforms and essential clothing to students in need. The partnership focuses on addressing a basic need for thousands of CMSD students facing poverty in an effort to remove clothing as a barrier to school, supporting the mission to address chronic absenteeism.

A member of the Browns since 2002, Harvey previously strengthened the club's local and national philanthropic efforts as vice president of community outreach. She was responsible for strategic planning and implementation of all community relations and youth football initiatives. Harvey also directed the allocation of resources related to player appearances, financial support and in-kind contributions.

Prior to joining the Browns, Harvey spent four years with the NHL's Anaheim Ducks, leading the team's community outreach efforts and the Ducks Care Foundation. She guided the Foundation as it issued more than $1 million of grants each year and oversaw many successful fundraising events, including the creation of Dux in Tux, which raised more than $1 million for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in the first three years.

Harvey is on the board of the Rainbow Babies and Children's Foundation. She also is a co-chair of the Say Yes to Education Philanthropy Funding Taskforce and is a member of the Philanthropy Ohio Education Advisory Committee and the United Way of Greater Cleveland Public Policy subcommittee.

Harvey received a B.A. in education from Idaho State University and an M.A. in sports administration at the University of Northern Colorado. A native of Denver, Colo., Harvey resides in Brunswick with her husband, Neal, and three sons.

On March 14, 2018, left tackle Joe Thomas announced his retirement from the NFL.

"From the moment I was drafted, the city embraced me in a way that I could never fully describe. I am proud to call Cleveland home," said Thomas. "The loyalty and passion of Browns fans is unmatched and it was an honor to play in front of them from the past 11 years. I would like to thank all of the coaches, teammates, staff, fans and everyone who has shown me support throughout my career. Even though I will be hanging up my cleats, I will always be a Cleveland Brown."

The third overall pick in the 2007 draft, Thomas played every offensive snap for the Browns from his rookie season through Week 7 in 2017, when he sustained a torn triceps that ended his consecutive snaps streak at 10,363. His Iron Man stretch, which consisted of 167 consecutive games, is believed to be the longest consecutive snaps streak in NFL history.

HEAD COACH

KEVIN STEFANSKI'S COACHING BACKGROUND

2005..... University of Pennsylvania, football operations
 2006-08 ..... Minnesota Vikings, assistant to the head coach
 2009-13..... Minnesota Vikings, assistant quarterbacks coach
 2014-15..... Minnesota Vikings, tight ends coach
 2016..... Minnesota Vikings, running backs coach
 2017-18 ..... Minnesota Vikings, quarterbacks coach/interim offensive coordinator
 2019..... Minnesota Vikings, offensive coordinator
 2020-..... Cleveland Browns, head coach

Kevin Stefanski was named the 18th full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history on January 13, 2020. He spent the previous 14 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, where he moved up the coaching ladder from assistant to the head coach to offensive coordinator.

Stefanski joined the Vikings in 2006 as an assistant to the head coach and remained with the organization under three different head coaches. After serving as assistant quarterbacks coach from 2009-13, Stefanski spent two seasons (2014-15) coaching the tight ends and one season (2016) as running backs coach. From 2017-18, he coached the quarterbacks and added the role of interim offensive coordinator for the final three games before being named the team's offensive coordinator in 2019.

In 2019, the Vikings posted a 10-6 record and earned their first road playoff win since January 9, 2005, after defeating the Saints, 26-20, in New Orleans. Three offensive players were selected to the Pro Bowl as RB Dalvin Cook and FB C.J. Ham were each named to their first career Pro Bowl with Cook voted a starter. QB Kirk Cousins was also named to the Pro Bowl.

In his first full year under Stefanski, Cousins set a single-season career high for passer rating with a 107.4 mark, fourth best in the NFL in 2019. Cousins also finished with a career-low six interceptions, while adding 26 touchdowns and a 69.1 completion percentage, fourth in the NFL in 2019. He set a Vikings record for completions in a season with 425 and finished with the second-most passing yards (4,298) and passer rating (107.4) in Vikings history.

With 1,135 rushing yards, Cook became the eighth player in Vikings history to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season and the first since Adrian Peterson in 2015. Despite missing the final two games of the season, Cook finished fourth in the NFL with 13 rushing touchdowns and seventh in scrimmage yards with 1,654.

WR Stefon Diggs set a career high with 1,130 receiving yards, giving him back-to-back 1,000-receiving yard seasons for the first time in his career. Diggs finished fourth in the NFL with an average of 17.9 yards per reception in 2019.

Stefanski was elevated from quarterbacks coach to interim offensive coordinator in Week 15 of the 2018 season and promptly guided the unit to two of its best showings of the season. In his first game calling plays, Minnesota scored a season-high 41 points and recorded 418 yards of offense en route to a 41-17 victory over the Dolphins.

As quarterbacks coach in 2017, the Vikings were forced to go to their backup, Case Keenum, early in the season after starter Sam Bradford went down with an injury. Keenum, who had completed 58 percent of his passes previously owned a 9-15 career record as a starter, went on to complete nearly 68 percent of his throws with 22 touchdowns and seven interceptions while leading the Vikings to a record of 11-3.

In his lone season coaching the running backs in 2016, the Vikings battled injuries along the offensive line and to RB Adrian Peterson that caused the runner to miss 13 games. The running game leaned on veterans Jerick McKinnon and Matt Asiata as the duo combined for 941 yards and eight rushing touchdowns.

As tight ends coach, Stefanski helped develop Pro Bowl TE Kyle Rudolph. In 2015, his unit helped clear the way for Adrian Peterson to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,485 yards.

Stefanski was elevated to assistant quarterbacks coach in 2009, where he had a hands-on role in one of the most successful offense seasons in Vikings history. Veteran QB Brett Favre signed with the team in mid-August and finished the season with 4,202 passing yards and 33 touchdowns. The Vikings finished the season 12-4 and won the NFC North.

Stefanski spent the 2005 season at his alma mater, Pennsylvania, as assistant director of football operations, coordinating all aspects of the Quakers' day-to-day operations.

A team captain as a senior in 2003, Stefanski was part of one of the most successful stretches in the history of the Quaker football program. The team won three Ivy League titles (2000, 2002 and 2003), and went 10-0 in 2003 to become the first undefeated Penn team in a decade. During Stefanski's tenure, the squad posted a 42-7 overall record and a 32-3 mark in Ivy League play and he was twice honored as an Honorable Mention All-Ivy choice in 2002 and 2004.

Stefanski earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Pennsylvania and attended St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia.

The Stefanski family has made a name in athletics as Kevin's father, Ed, was a basketball standout at Penn and works in the front office of the Detroit Pistons. He has previously held executive positions with the NBA's New Jersey Nets, Philadelphia 76ers, Toronto Raptors and Memphis Grizzlies.

Stefanski and wife, Michelle, have a daughter and two sons.

The Browns created the Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship in 2020, which is intended for a rising minority coach with a focus on the offensive side of the ball. In the program, the coach spends a full season with Cleveland's coaching staff and assist coaches with week-to-week game plans and talent evaluations. The fellowship also provides the coach with a plethora of resources to network with other coaches, gain valuable knowledge on the implementation of NFL-level coaching methods and improve their path to a professional coaching career.

The team created the fellowship to provide opportunities and experience to minority coaches, who have historically faced barriers in their pursuit of entry-level positions and promotions. The fellowship was named after Willis, who along with teammate Marion Motley, overcame many obstacles to become two of the first African-American professional football players in the modern era. Willis played with the Browns from 1946-53 and was enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1977.

Ashton Grant was named the first-ever recipient of the Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship on July 14, 2020.

"While we greatly respect all of our players' work in the community, Jarvis is truly deserving of this award as he has been a strong leader both on and off the field since coming to Cleveland," said Dee and Jimmy Haslam. "We are proud that Jarvis is able to represent the Browns as our Walter Payton Man of the Year as he has made a significant impact in many important areas for our team, including through his commitment to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and youth football initiatives."

WR Jarvis Landry was named the Cleveland Browns 2019 Walter Payton Man of the Year, presented by Nationwide, as one of the NFL's best players for his performance on the field and his dedication to the community.

A committed team leader who is highly respected among his teammates and NFL peers, Landry is committed to impacting those in need both in Cleveland and in his home state of Louisiana, including a passion for fighting Cystic Fibrosis. DE Myles Garrett took over as player captain for Chris Long Foundation's "Waterboys." Garrett then went on his first humanitarian trip to Tanzania as NFL captain of Waterboys, the cornerstone of the Chris Long Foundation that provides clean drinking water to impoverished communities in East Africa.

"I always feel like I had a passion for helping give water to underprivileged countries, towns, everywhere – not just overseas but here, too. It happens everywhere in the world," Garrett said. "When I entered the league, I had some maturing to do and some growing to do on the field. Once I was set in both walks of life, I could step up and take this kind of leadership role. Chris came to me before, but I wasn't ready. Now that we're both on the same page, it's now my turn to right the ship and take the leap."

Since its launch, Waterboys has funded over 65 wells serving more than 245,000 people. Roughly 844 million people around the world are without basic water access – more than twice the population of the United States.

HOW THE BROWNS WERE NAMED

One myth is that the team was named after the popular boxing champion, Joe Louis, "The Brown Bomber."

However, when owner Arthur McBride brought an AAFC team to Cleveland in 1945, he held a newspaper contest to name the team and offered a $1,000 war bond to the winner. Most of the entries submitted wanted the name Browns because the extremely popular Paul Brown was the team's head coach.

Coach Brown thought it wouldn't be proper to name the team after him, and the entry "Panthers" was selected. A few weeks later, a man approached McBride and said he owned a semi-pro team in the 1920s called the Cleveland Panthers and he still owned the rights to the name.

McBride could have bought the man off, but Brown vetoed the idea. The coach didn't want the new team to be associated with a losing franchise. Instead of holding a new contest, Brown reluctantly agreed on the name "The Browns."

10 DAYS OF GIVING

Throughout "10 Days of Giving," Browns players, coaches and staff host unique community events and make special contributions to various organizations during the holiday season as part of the team's yearlong commitment to education, youth football and inspiring others through its signature First and Ten volunteer movement. The extended week of community engagement, initially inspired by the Browns' signature #give10 First and Ten volunteer movement, has expanded in recent years to fully encompass the team's commitment to supporting school attendance in Ohio through the "Get 2 School, Stay in the Game!" Network and its yearlong efforts to enhance youth and high school football throughout the state. #give10.

SPECIAL ADVISOR

KEY NOTES

- Cleveland Browns Hall of Fame running back Jim Brown serves as a special advisor for the team. In this role, he serves in a variety of off-field capacities with the club and in the community. Brown previously was as an executive advisor with the team, a position he held through 2010.
- Cleveland's No. 1 draft choice in 1957 from Syracuse, Brown starred in both football and lacrosse during his collegiate career.
- He went on to fulfill a storied NFL career, which included leading the NFL in rushing during eight of his nine seasons. He appeared in nine consecutive Pro Bowls and was named the NFL's MVP three times (1957, 1958 and 1965). Brown owns team records for most combined net yards (15,459), career rushing yards (12,312), most points in one season (126), career TDs (126), rushing TDs (106), most consecutive games scoring a TD (10) and most 1,000 yard seasons (seven).
- Brown's No. 32 was retired by the club and he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971. A statue of his likeness was unveiled outside the southeast corner of FirstEnergy Stadium in 2016.
- Brown is active with his Amer-I-Can Program, which works in schools, prisons and communities across the country. Born on Feb. 17, 1936, in St. Simons, Ga., Brown and his wife, Monique, live in California with their two children.

J I M B R O W N S T A T U E

On September 18, 2016 during Browns Alumni Weekend, a statue of Jim Brown's likeness was unveiled outside the southeast corner of FirstEnergy Stadium.

"It's pretty hard to argue with what Jim did as a player," said Jimmy Haslam during the ceremony. "I'm sure you could argue with some various franchises whether he is the greatest NFL player of all time, even the greatest NFL running back, but it would be pretty hard to argue that he is not the greatest Cleveland Brown of all time."

The statue is a first for the Browns honoring a former player, and the team commissioned nationally-recognized sculptor David L. Deming of Lakewood, Ohio, for the statue.

"One of the reasons we have such a tremendous fan base today is that so many of us grew up watching Jim Brown play and remembered (No.) 32 and how he dominated for nine years," Haslam said.

UNIFORM CHANGES SINCE 1946

1946 - In the team's inaugural season, the Browns wore plain white helmets and sported white and brown jerseys with classy, shadow-boxed numbers. These jerseys were worn for only one season.

1947 - The Browns introduced what is now viewed as the "classic" Browns uniform.

1950 - The Browns introduced solid orange helmets for the first time as part of their uniform.

1953 - Orange uniforms are introduced for the first time when they don them for their home opener against the Philadelphia Eagles. They would appear again in exhibition games in 1954 and 1955 before being shelved for 47 years.

1957 - For three seasons, the Browns added brown jersey numbers to all of their helmets.

1960 - For one season only, the Browns incorporated two brown stripes that flank the existing white center striped helmets along with the brown jersey numbers on the side.

1969 - A commemorative patch was added to the uniform to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the NFL. This is the first time that a patch of any kind was worn on the uniform.

1970 - Names were introduced to the back of all jerseys and remained a permanent fixture.

1975 - Orange pants were introduced for the first time and worn regularly. All facemasks on helmets were also changed to white in color.

1984 - Jerseys were redesigned as solid orange pants were replaced by white pants that for the first time featured an orange center stripe outlined with brown stripes to go with solid orange or brown socks. Brown jerseys with orange numbers were worn for the preseason before being scrapped because numbers proved to be too difficult for spotters to recognize during the game.

1985 - The team returned to the "classic" Browns look.

2002 - Orange jerseys made a return to the field for the Browns.

2003 - An orange center stripe returned to the pants for first time since 1984.

2008 - Solid brown pants were introduced for the first time.

2013 - The Browns sported a "brown out" version of their jersey for a Thursday Night Football game against the Buffalo Bills at FirstEnergy Stadium, wearing their brown jersey with solid brown pants and socks for the first time in team history.

2016 - Browns introduce new uniform design that had CLEVELAND emblazoned across the chest, making the Browns the only NFL club to feature its city on the front of the jersey rather than its team name.

2020 - The new look features brown jerseys with white numbers and white jerseys with brown numbers that will be worn with brown or white pants. Both pants have a brown stripe between two orange stripes down the side. The Browns' helmet will continue to feature a brown facemask, which was introduced in 2015, but will no longer include carbon fiber texture in the striping.

PHIL DAWSON RETIRES

On August 1, 2019, Phil Dawson signed a contract to retire from the NFL as a Cleveland Brown.

"To have the opportunity to come back home and retire with the organization and the city that I love is incredibly meaningful to me," said Dawson. "It only seems right to have the opportunity to do this with the fans that have been so good to me and my family."

Originally signed by the Browns in 1999, Dawson won the placekicking job during training camp and remained with the team through the 2012 season. He holds team records for most career field goals (305), highest career field goal percentage (84.0), most field goals in a season (30 in 2008), highest field goal percentage in a season (93.5 in 2012), field goals in a game (six on Nov. 5, 2006), most consecutive field goals made (29) and most consecutive games with a field goal (23). He scored 1,271 points with Cleveland, the second most by a Brown, and his 215 games are the third-most by a Browns player. In 2012, Dawson became the only Browns kicker selected to the Pro Bowl (Lou Groza was selected as a tackle).

HELMETS PROGRAM DONATION

Berea Midpark High School received $25,000 to equip its entire team with new helmets (approximately 75) through this round of donations through the HELMETS program in 2019. During the past five years, the Browns have helped equip multiple local teams with more than $400,000 in donations for helmets (more than 1,000 helmets) as part of the team's commitment to youth football in Northeast Ohio and throughout the state. The totals include donations directly from the Browns, as well as those made possible through the HELMETS program and its corporate partners. HELMETS is a collaboration between the Browns, University Hospitals, Xenith and Ohio Lottery in a shared effort to enhance health and safety of young athletes through proper equipment, education and training. All schools must register to become USA Football Heads Up certified to be eligible.

HISTORY

HISTORY

The Cleveland Browns have one of the richest traditions in professional football, boasting eight league titles, including four NFL championships. In addition, 17 former Browns have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, the seventh-most of any NFL franchise.

The Browns were founded in 1945 as a charter member of the All-America Football Conference (AAFC), under businessman Arthur B. "Mickey" McBride, who would name Paul Brown the team's general manager and head coach. The franchise conducted a team naming contest, and the No. 1 choice was "Browns," highlighting Paul Brown's popularity in the area. In addition to Brown, that first team consisted of future Hall of Famers in center Frank Gatski, quarterback Otto Graham, offensive tackle/kicker Lou Groza, receiver Dante Lavelli, fullback Marion Motley and lineman Bill Willis.

In their first season in the AAFC (1946), the Browns posted a 12-2 record and went on to defeat the New York Yankees in the league's inaugural championship game, 14-9. They were equally successful off the field, averaging more than 57,000 fans to their home games at Municipal Stadium. The Browns would go on to claim the AAFC title in all four years of the league's existence, including a 15-0 record in 1948.

In 1950, the Browns were one of only three AAFC teams to merge with the National Football League, along with the San Francisco 49ers and Baltimore Colts. Despite joining a more established league, Cleveland continued its success as they marched through the 1950 regular season with a 10-2 record before defeating the New York Giants in the playoffs and the Los Angeles Rams in the championship game. In fact, the Browns appeared in the NFL Championship game in each of their first seven years in the league (1950-56), coming away with three titles during that time (1950, 1954-55).

Quarterback Otto Graham guided the Browns to the championship game in all 10 of his professional seasons, helping the team capture seven titles (four AAFC and three NFL). Graham led the AAFC in passing all four years and led the NFL in passing twice (1953 and 1955), while totaling 23,584 passing yards combined in both leagues.

In 1957, the Browns selected Syracuse running back Jim Brown with the sixth overall pick of the NFL Draft. Brown would go on to lead the league in rushing that year with 942 yards in just 12 games as he was named NFL Rookie of the Year. He helped the Browns back to the NFL title game that season, although they dropped a 59-14 decision to the Detroit Lions. The following year,

Brown again led the league in rushing, with 1,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. It marked one of seven times over the next eight years in which he rushed for more than 1,100 yards.

After going consecutive seasons without making the playoffs for the first time in franchise history (1961-62), Blanton Collier took over for Paul Brown as head coach in 1963, and guided the team to a regular season record of 10-4 as they returned to the postseason, led by Jim Brown's career-high 1,863 rushing yards. The following year, the Browns put together a record of 10-3-1, capped by a 27-0 victory over Baltimore in the NFL Championship game. The 1964 season marked the first of three NFL title game appearances for the Browns over the next five years.

Following the 1965 season, Brown unexpectedly announced his retirement to pursue an acting career. In his final year, Brown rushed for 1,544 yards, the third straight year and eighth time in his nine NFL seasons that he topped the league's rushing chart.

Following Brown's retirement, Cleveland could not be derailed as the team qualified for the postseason in three of the next four years, including two NFL Championship game appearances (1968-69). Running back Leroy Kelly, an eighth-round draft choice of the team in 1964, rushed for more than 1,000 yards in three of those seasons (1966-68).

On Sept. 21, 1970, the Browns became part of history as they had the distinction of hosting the New York Jets in the first-ever Monday Night Football game, emerging with a 31-21 victory.

Collier wrapped up his coaching career following the 1970 season. He registered a 76-34-2 (.688) regular season record and guided the Browns to four NFL Championship games.

The decade of the 1970s started with the Browns making two trips to the playoffs in the first three years. Then came a stretch in which the Browns missed the postseason seven straight seasons (1973-79). In the final year of that span, however, the Browns, under the guidance of second-year Head Coach Sam Rutigliano put together a record of 9-7 and affectionately earned the nickname of the "Kardiac Kids." Of the team's nine victories that year, seven came by seven points or less. Two of those wins occurred in overtime while three others were decided within the final two minutes of regulation.

This excitement continued into the following season of 1980. After starting the year 2-3, the Browns reeled off five straight wins and victories in eight of their next nine. Of those eight triumphs, six came by six points or less. On the final week of the season, Don Cockroft's

22-yard field goal with less than two minutes to play lifted the Browns to a 27-24 victory over the Bengals at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, as Cleveland captured its first AFC Central crown since 1971 and its first playoff berth since 1972.

In 1985, the franchise underwent a makeover as Marty Schottenheimer was named the team's sixth full-time head coach and the club selected University of Miami quarterback Bernie Kosar – a Youngstown native who grew up in Boardman, Ohio – in the NFL Supplemental Draft. By midseason of his rookie year, Kosar had cracked the starting lineup, leading the Browns to wins in four of his first six starts. Cleveland went on to post an 8-8 record that year, which was good for first place in the AFC Central division. That season, running backs Earnest Byner and Kevin Mack both topped the 1,000-yard rushing mark, a feat that would not be accomplished again by a pair of running backs on the same team in the same season until 2008.

The Browns seemed poised for their first playoff win since 1969 as they held a 21-3 third-quarter lead over the Dolphins at the Orange Bowl before Miami reeled off 21 unanswered points to come away with a 24-21 victory. With Kosar at the helm, the Browns would win three AFC Central division titles over the next four years (1986-87, 1989) and qualify for the playoffs on each occasion. Three of those four appearances resulted in a spot in the AFC Championship game, only to be stopped short of their ultimate destination by the Denver Broncos each time.

In Aug. of 1991, the Browns moved into a new administrative complex in Berea and began holding training camp there in July of the following year.

On Nov. 6, 1995, it was announced that the Browns had signed a deal to relocate to Baltimore for the following season. In Feb. 1996, the NFL announced that the Browns would be "deactivated" for three years and that a new stadium would be built for a new Browns team – either as an expansion team or one that would move from another city – that would begin play in 1999. Cleveland NFL Football (Cleveland Browns Trust) was formed by the NFL with Bill Futterer as President and NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue as Trustee. The Trust represented the NFL in the stadium design and construction, managed the sale of suites and club seats, and sold Permanent Seat Licenses and season tickets. In March 1998, at the owners meeting in Orlando, Tagliabue announced that the Browns would be an expansion team rather than a relocated team. On Sept. 8, 1998, the NFL awarded the new Cleveland Browns franchise to a group led by Alfred Lerner and the NFL formally transferred ownership on Oct. 23, 1998.

The new Cleveland Browns franchise played their first game on Aug. 9, 1999 when they edged the Dallas Cowboys, 20-17 in overtime, in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Fawcett Stadium in Canton to open the preseason. They played their first regular season game on Sept. 12 against their long-time rival Pittsburgh Steelers at FirstEnergy Stadium. Their initial regular season victory occurred in dramatic fashion as a 56-yard Hail Mary from quarterback Tim Couch to wide receiver Kevin Johnson as time expired lifted the Browns to a 21-16 decision over the Saints at the Superdome, in what would be the first of two wins in that first season back for Cleveland.

On Oct. 23, 2002, owner Alfred Lerner passed away and his son, Randy, took over control of the team. Later that year, the Browns won their final two regular season games to finish with a record of 9-7, earning them their first playoff berth since returning to the league just four years earlier.

With the third overall pick in the 2007 NFL Draft, the Browns selected left tackle Joe Thomas. He played every offensive snap for the Browns from his rookie season through Week 7 in 2017, when his streak ended at 10,363, the longest streak in NFL history. He also became the fifth player and the only lineman in NFL history to be selected to the Pro Bowl each of his first 10 seasons.

The team unveiled a Ring of Honor at FirstEnergy Stadium at halftime of the home opener against the Kansas City Chiefs on Sept. 19, 2010. The inaugural class consisted of the franchise's 16 Hall of Famers, as the name of each man was permanently displayed on the stadium's upper deck facade. In 2012, the years of the team's eight league championships were added to the southeast end of facade. In 2018, the number 10,363 was enshrined to honor Joe Thomas' snap streak. In 2019, Clay Matthews was inducted to the Browns Ring of Honor.

On Aug. 2, 2012, Dee and Jimmy Haslam agreed to purchase controlling interest of the Cleveland Browns from Randy Lerner. The NFL approved the Haslams as the owners on Oct. 16.

The Browns and FirstEnergy Corp. announced that the team's venue will be called FirstEnergy Stadium, Home of the Cleveland Browns on Jan. 15, 2013.

On Oct. 29, 2017, the Browns played their first regular season game outside of the United States when they faced the Minnesota Vikings at Twickenham Stadium in London, England.

The Browns selected QB Baker Mayfield with the first overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft and in just 13 starts, he set the NFL record for touchdown passes by a rookie with 27.

Kevin Stefanski was named Head Coach on Jan. 13, 2020 and Andrew Berry was named Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager on Jan. 28, 2020.

#14 OTTO GRAHAM

From 1946-1955, Otto Graham guided the Browns to 10 league championship games and NFL Championships in 1950, 1954 and 1955. He led the NFL in passing for two seasons and recorded 23,584 career passing yards. In 1953, Graham finished the season with a 64.73 completion percentage, the highest in club history. He was an All-League selection from 1951-55. Graham was inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1965.

#32 JIM BROWN

Brown was the NFL's leading rusher in eight seasons and holds the Browns franchise record for career rushing yards, attempts and touchdowns. An All-America selection from Syracuse in 1956, Brown was named NFL Rookie of the Year in 1957. He participated in nine consecutive Pro Bowls from 1958-66 and was voted NFL most valuable player in 1957, 1958 and 1965. Brown was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971.

#45 ERNIE DAVIS

After being selected first in the 1961 NFL draft, the Browns acquired Ernie Davis in a trade with the Washington Redskins. Tragically, Davis passed away two years later from leukemia and never played a professional game. A star running back from Syracuse, Davis was the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy in 1961 and guided the Orangemen to their only national championship the same year.

#46 DON FLEMING

Don Fleming was selected by the Chicago Cardinals in the 28th round of the 1959 NFL draft. He was traded to the Browns in 1960 and was a mainstay at the safety position. From 1960-63, Fleming intercepted 10 passes and was named to The Sporting News All-AFC team in 1962. During the 1963 offseason, Fleming and a co-worker were sadly electrocuted working a construction job. His passing came a few weeks after Ernie Davis' death.

#76 LOU GROZA

Lou Groza is Cleveland's all-time top scorer with 1,349 points on 234 FGs, 641 PATs and one TD. He scored at least one point in 107 consecutive games and his last-second field goal sealed the 1950 NFL Championship for the Browns. Originally an offensive left tackle, Groza suffered a back injury which converted him into a kicking specialist from 1961-67. He was an All-NFL tackle on six occasions and was the NFL Player of the Year in 1954. Groza was inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1974.

To pay homage to their great history - one of the richest in the NFL - the Browns unveiled the Cleveland Browns Ring of Honor during a special ceremony at halftime of the 2010 regular season home opener, against Kansas City on Sept. 19. The initial group of inductees consisted of the 16 former Browns enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The names of these 16 greats are prominently displayed on the facade of the upper deck of the stadium. In 2012, the years of the team's eight league championships were added to the facade at the southeast end of FirstEnergy Stadium. On Oct. 14, 2018, Joe Thomas' streak of 10,363 was enshrined. Thomas played 10,363 consecutive offensive snaps over 167 games from his rookie season in 2007 until 2017. On Sept. 22, 2019, Clay Matthews was inducted to the Browns Ring of Honor. Matthews, a first-round pick in 1978, played 16 seasons (1978-93) with the Browns and is considered one of the league's best linebackers and most durable players.

As a team, the Browns had two WRs (Odell Beckham Jr. and Jarvis Landry) and RB Nick Chubb (1,772) all eclipse 1,000 scrimmage yards in a season for the first time in history.

Landry (1,174) and Beckham Jr. (1,035) became the first WR duo in franchise history with 1,000-plus receiving yards each in a single season. The pair joined WR Braylon Edwards (1,289) and TE Kellen Winslow (1,106) in 2007 as the only Browns teammates to accomplish the feat. Chubb finished his Pro Bowl season second in the league with 1,494 rushing yards.

In November, the NFL and the Browns continue their year-round commitment to local and national military appreciation as part of the league's "Salute to Service" initiative. The Salute to Service campaign aligns with an NFL tradition of supporting America's armed services, including a more than 45-year partnership with the USO that hosts overseas visits to troops and trips to military hospitals nationwide. The USO of Northern Ohio is also a year-round community partner of the Browns First and Ten volunteer movement.

During pregame on November 14, 2019 vs. Buffalo, USAA Military Affairs Representative Mike Warner joined the Browns at midfield as the team's honorary Browns Give Back First and Ten Coin Toss Captain.

GAME DAY

GAME DAY

FirstEnergy Stadium is home not only to a storied football franchise but also to a dedicated, passionate group of people who are the world's greatest fans. At FirstEnergy Stadium, fans take pride in supporting their team in a safe, enthusiastic and family-oriented atmosphere. This special combination of sportsmanship and exhilaration makes Sunday afternoons with the Browns a memorable experience.

FirstEnergy Stadium was built on the hallowed ground of the old Municipal Stadium. The lakefront is home of the Cleveland Browns, where the legendary Coach Paul Brown established Cleveland's first football dynasty in the 1940s and 16 Cleveland Browns established their credentials for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. In 2010, the team's Pro Football Hall of Fame enshrinees were further honored by the unveiling of their names in the Ring of Honor, which recognizes their contributions to the Cleveland Browns organization. The names of these 16 greats, as well as LB Clay Matthews, who was added in 2019, are now permanently displayed on the facade of the stadium's upper deck, while Joe Thomas' historic consecutive offensive snaps played streak was recognized when "10,363" was placed in the Ring of Honor and unveiled in 2018.

FirstEnergy Stadium is a celebration of the city's renaissance, drawing people to the lakefront every day. The crown jewel of the North Coast Harbor, FirstEnergy Stadium is located next to the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame and the Great Lakes Science Center. While on the south side of the stadium, fans can grab items to represent their favorite team at the Pro Shop, where all of the the team's net proceeds from purchases within the location are then donated to benefit the Northeast Ohio community.

NOT JUST FOR BROWNS GAMES

FirstEnergy Stadium also plays host to various major events and is available for private functions such as wedding receptions, proms, holiday parties and business luncheons. In 2017 and 2019, the stadium played host to international soccer doubleheaders featuring the U.S. Men's National Team during the Concacaf Gold Cup. In 2019, FirstEnergy Stadium also welcomed the U.S. Soccer Women's National Team for a friendly against China PR and two major stadium concert tours – Taylor Swift's reputation tour and the JAY-Z and Beyoncé OTR II tour.

In 2017, the facility also hosted a U2 concert. On June 5, 2016, the stadium welcomed the U.S. Soccer Women's National Team for the second leg of a two-game friendly series against Japan.

In 2015, FirstEnergy Stadium welcomed One Direction and Luke Bryan for top-notch concerts. In 2012, "The Brothers of the Sun Tour," featuring Kenny Chesney and Tim McGraw, came to FirstEnergy Stadium. The stadium has also played host to Kenny Chesney concerts in 2007 and 2008, as well as The Three Tenors (2000), George Strait (2000) and *NSYNC (2001).

On May 29, 2013, the U.S. Men's National Team hosted Belgium for the first international soccer match at the stadium since 2006. On six occasions since 2005, the High School Charity Games have been staged at FirstEnergy Stadium, showcasing some of the top area high school football talent. College football has been a regular on FirstEnergy Stadium's docket. On September 21, 2013, Tuskegee University and Winston Salem State University squared off in the Third Annual Cleveland Classic HBCU football game. From 2006-2013, a college game was played at the stadium each year except 2010.

FIRSTENERGY STADIUM RENOVATION, 2014-15

In 2015, the Browns completed a two-year, $125 million modernization project that was launched by Dee and Jimmy Haslam in 2013. The Browns, with the City of Cleveland and Mayor Frank Jackson's support, now provide the team and its fans a top-tier NFL facility, one with a significant home-field advantage charged by the Dawg Pound.

"This renovation is a result of wanting to create the best fan experience in the NFL, and also to create a venue to attract other world-class events at FirstEnergy Stadium," said Jimmy Haslam. "We realize the transformative opportunity of this investment for the City of Cleveland. We're excited to reward our fans and the community with the experience they deserve."

All facets of the renovation were incorporated with the mission to provide Browns fans an enhanced in-game experience, while also improving the team's home-field advantage, bolstered by the NFL's most loyal and passionate fan base.

In 2015, the modernization revitalized the look and feel of the stadium's external and internal features, creating a vibrant environment that highlights Cleveland and the Browns' illustrious history. In addition to upgrading lighting, signage and way-finding throughout the concourses, high-definition graphics inside and outside the stadium now depict current players, Browns legends, the historic Dawg Pound and the best fans in the league.

During Phase II, the Browns also increased the availability of Cleveland chef partner options and general concessions for all fans, focusing on Cleveland tastes. Renovated dining locations and upgraded food and beverage amenities were added, including new concepts and offerings, in addition to modernized facades, signage, menu boards and way-finding throughout the stadium. All 35 permanent concession stands were remodeled.

Prior to the end of the 2015 season, the team installed and fully optimized a new WiFi system to offer fans increased access through their mobile devices, including to track stats and scores across the league and additional team information through the Browns Mobile App.

In an effort to further highlight the team's connection to Cleveland and its thriving food scene, celebrity chef concepts including Michael Symon's B Spot and Rocco Whalen's Great Lakes Cheesesteaks are now featured in the 100 and 500 levels of the stadium.

The Browns began their food and beverage transformation through an expanded partnership with Aramark, which in 2014 became FirstEnergy Stadium's general concessionaire after serving as the facility's premium dining and catering company since 2012. During Phase I, the team incorporated menu items from many of Cleveland's award-winning chefs that previously were only available in premium areas. The first stage of the renovation created new stands in general concession locations, highlighted by Symon's B Spot in the west end zone and a new concept from Whalen, Great Lakes Cheesesteaks, in the east end zone.

In the second phase, the team also modernized premium areas, including upgrading all club seats and suites, while adding more top-level entertainment areas. A field-level hospitality location has been constructed opposite of the Browns' locker room, while the Grille Club, north and south clubs and upper- and lower-level suites were restructured and refurbished, with every facet of each area receiving fresh upgrades.

FIRSTENERGY STADIUM VIDEO BOARD QUICK FACTS

- Approximately 6,900 square feet, nearly triple the size of the old units
- Built by Daktronics
- 15HD pixel layout
- Measure 40 feet x 192 feet – 192 feet across the top, 178 feet across the middle, 132 feet across the middle
- Equivalent in size to 645 60-inch HD television sets
- Comparable in size to the avg. U.S. home (2,200 square feet), plus a full-size basketball court (4,700 square feet)
- 32 feet lower and 56 feet closer to the field

During Phase I, the Browns installed two new angled video boards that measure approximately 6,900 square feet, nearly triple the size of the old units. The boards, which are equivalent in size to 645 60-inch HD televisions, are 32 feet lower and 56 feet closer to the field, further enhancing their impact on all fans' viewing experience. New LED video boards, which feature stats, scores and information, as well as new and upgraded LED ribbon boards, were installed throughout the stadium.

The new video elements are complemented by an entirely new audio system, delivering crisper, clearer audio throughout the stadium. The main bowl's system was entirely replaced with best-in-class audio equipment, and is supported by additional speaker locations throughout the complex that improved clarity to previously shadowed areas. With the new video and audio systems, the Browns have incorporated state-of-the-art technologies that impress fans with high-level scoreboard programming and concert-quality sound.

In 2014, the project also increased the lower bowl's seating capacity while improving sightlines. Many Browns fans are now seated closer to the field and observe dramatically better views of the game, fostering a more intimate environment while enhancing the team's home-field advantage. In addition to creating more prime locations for fans, the Browns expanded ADA seating in the project's first phase.

Easing in-stadium access for fans was another priority in the renovation's initial stage. Two escalators were installed in both the east and west end zones to ensure the most fluid, convenient movement in and between stadium levels. There are now 12 escalators that provide access to stadium concourses, including direct access to the 300 and 500 levels.

For the first time in 2014, FirstEnergy Stadium featured fan decks that host unique engagement areas in both end zones. Each deck offers a special in-stadium viewing experience, with fans gaining access to new locations and activations while still being able to watch the game live.

CLEVELAND BROWNS TRAINING AND ADMINISTRATIVE COMPLEX

The Cleveland Browns Training Facility is located in Berea, Ohio, where it sits on 13 acres of land. The building originally opened in August of 1991 and has undergone many renovations since its debut. The 115,000 square foot building has two floors, both of which have been renovated in recent years.

Prior to the 2016 season, the Browns made significant upgrades to the building's exterior and interior, focusing primarily on improving player areas to provide the team's coaches and players with best-in-class resources, by adding 25,000 square feet and renovating an additional 25,000 square feet of the facility. In addition to increasing the size of office and meeting spaces, Cleveland redesigned the locker room, player meeting rooms, player lounge, cafeteria and training room, including the installation of a lap pool and new hot and cold tubs.

During the 2013 offseason, the facility's second floor underwent a 36,000 square foot renovation. The new space boasts an open floor plan and was designed to create a vibrant, energetic and collaborative space for the club's football and business operations. The new space houses a state-of-the-art media studio where radio and television production take place in house.

Connected to the facility is the team's 60,000 square foot indoor field house. The facility also hosts four regulation-size natural grass practice fields ideal for year-round football operations, including the club's training camp.

The Cleveland Browns and City of Berea agreed to a lease amendment that guarantees the team's facility will remain in Berea through at least 2028.

CLEVELAND BROWNS TRAINING CAMP HISTORY

The Browns Training and Administrative Complex will host 2020 Browns training camp, which marks the 26th time (1992-95, 1999-2020) the team will have conducted training camp at the facility. 2020 Cleveland Browns Training Camp is in association with Discount Drug Mart.

CLEVELAND BROWNS LOGO HISTORY

The Cleveland Browns have had six primary logos during the team's history, the most recent of which was introduced prior to the 2015 season. Complementing the iconic helmet logo, the team has also used various secondary marks throughout its history, including ones to celebrate the Dawg Pound, the team's return to Cleveland in 1999 and other anniversaries.

In April, the Browns debuted their new uniforms for 2020 and beyond, evoking the best memories of the storied franchise's past with a modern twist. Inspired by the AAFC and NFL champion squads of the 40s, 50s and 60s, the Kardiak Kids, the team's memorable run through the mid-80s and even some of the best memories in recent years, the Browns' updated look pays homage to the past while incorporating all of the modern technology of the Nike Vapor Untouchable Uniform, which provides the kind of wear-ability and comfort players expect in the modern NFL.

"We wanted to get back to the roots of who the Browns are," said Executive Vice President, Partner JW Johnson "We've heard it from our fans and from our players. We needed to get back to our roots.

"As you look at iconic franchises like the Browns, the Bears, the Packers, the Cowboys – they're true to who they are. They're not doing a lot of changes and trying to make a lot of flashy moves with their uniforms. I think when we went through the process, it just felt right that we got back to who we are and who we'll always be."

With the platform of the unveiling, the Browns also supported the true heroes on the front lines of the COVID-19 global health crisis. The Browns launched the "Hats Off To Our Heroes" Fund, which focused on aiding health care professionals, first responders, educational professionals and other groups who are pivotal in the community year round and valiantly persisted as role models in the face of significant adversity due to coronavirus. In addition to personal donations from team members, partners and fans, the Browns committed 100 percent of the team's net proceeds from 2020 Browns jersey sales at FirstEnergy Stadium's Pro Shop, in partnership with Legends, and online through Fanatics for a significant period of time.

The Browns' updated look features brown jerseys with white numbers and white jerseys with brown numbers that will be worn with brown or white pants, both of which feature a brown stripe sandwiched by two orange stripes running down the side. The most common looks will be brown jerseys with white pants and white jerseys with brown pants. Both the tops and bottoms will include the traditional striping – three white stripes and two orange stripes on the brown jerseys and matching socks; three brown stripes and two orange stripes on the white jerseys and matching socks – that has been a core fixture on the team's uniforms throughout the vast majority of its history.

The team's Color Rush jerseys -which became the team's official home uniform for 2019 – have undergone slight modifications, including the removal of stripes on the jerseys and pants.

The Browns' helmet will continue to feature a brown facemask, which was introduced in 2015, but will no longer include carbon fiber texture in the striping. Stitched inside the collar of every jersey is "1946," the year the team was founded. It replaces "DAWG POUND," which filled the spot from 2015-19. Additionally, all three jersey fronts will not feature a wordmark above the numbers for a cleaner finish.

"We just felt like getting back to our roots and going back to who we are and who we'll always be is a reason why we made this change," Johnson said. "We hope that our fans, alumni and players, who are obviously really excited about it, will be happy with the direction where we went."
